Is there any thing you can tell us about your child that would help him/her to settle at pre-school? For example do they have a comforter such as a dummy, special toy or blanket? If they have a favourite game or book or even a T.V program it helps for us to know. Information such as this helps us to know your child and gives us things we can talk to him/her about. Any information you can give us to help your little one feel happy and confident at pre-school is greatly appreciated. Please remember take as long as you like each morning to help your child stay and play happily. Never leave with out saying goodbye and reassuring them that you are returning to collect them after they have played for a while.
